

James Burrell

Builders Merchants

James Burrell Ltd is an independent builders merchant which was established in 1877. We have eight branches servicing our trading area of Northumberland down to South Yorkshire. We are a leading distributor of building materials, civils products, insulation and timber.

As an independent builders merchants we are a family run company with a culture which is friendly and team orientated. You would be joining a team where the majority of people have a number of years service, many of who have joined at more junior positions and have developed a long term career with us.

Due to continued growth we are looking to recruit the following personnel:

Warehouse Operative

Location: Gateshead

Salary: £19,248

THE ROLE: The Warehouse Operative will be expected to pick orders for Company vehicles as well as load and unload company, customer and supplier vehicles. The position is based in a very fast paced environment which has a high workload.

CANDIDATE: Due to the fast paced environment the successful candidate needs to be willing to work well under pressure. They also need to be reliable and well-presented with good organisational skills and be comfortable assisting customers. The successful candidate would ideally have experience of working in a builders merchants but having good product knowledge on a range of building materials and experience of working in a warehouse/yard environment would be an advantage. However having the right attitude, being willing to help and go that extra mile is equally important.

We offer a salary of £19,248 and 27 days holiday per annum.

The normal working week will be Monday to Friday although there may be the opportunity for overtime on evenings or Saturday morning.

Applications will be treated with the strictest of confidence; please forward your covering letter and CV to HR Manager, James Burrell Ltd, Deptford Road, Gateshead, NE8 2BR or email personnel@jamesburrell.com.

Closing date for all applications: 27th September 2017.
